

Stand-up Comedy Quiz: questions and answers

1. Where does Stand-up comedy have its origin?

- Roman Empire
- Ancient Greece
- Babylon

2. When did Stand-up comedy became popular in the UK?

- 15th century
- 18th century
- 17th century

3. Where is The Comedy Store located?

- Sydney, Australia
- London, Great Britain
- New York, United States

4. Who was the most famous American stand-up comedian during WWII?

- Bob Hope
- Jerry Seinfeld
- Reggie Watts

5. Who launched the Hungry i nightclub?

- Louis C. K.
- Eric Nord

George Carlin

6. What was the stage name of Loretta Mary Aiken?

- Jackie «Moms» Mabley
- Babe Loretta
- Jackie «Granma» Mabley

7. Where did Bill Cosby start his career as a stand-up comic?

- Miami, Florida
- Los Angeles, California
- San Francisco, California

8. Who were the creators of the American television sitcom called Seinfeld?

- Jerry Seinfeld and Jaime Bayly
- Larry David and Jerry Seinfeld
- Jerry Seinfeld and Robin Williams

9. What is the live show where anyone can perform for the audience is called?

- Open mic
- Guest set
- Speak'n'laugh

Stand-up Comedy Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. Where does Stand-up comedy have its origin?
Ancient Greece
2. When did Stand-up comedy became popular in the UK?
18th century
3. Where is The Comedy Store located?
London, Great Britain
4. Who was the most famous American stand-up comedian during WWII?
Bob Hope
5. Who launched the Hungry i nightclub?
Eric Nord
6. What was the stage name of Loretta Mary Aiken?
Jackie «Moms» Mabley
7. Where did Bill Cosby start his career as a stand-up comic?
San Francisco, California
8. Who were the creators of the American television sitcom called Seinfeld?
Larry David and Jerry Seinfeld
9. What is the live show where anyone can perform for the audience is called?
Open mic