

Synchronicity Quiz: questions and answers

1. Who was the first to give the concept of synchronicity?

- Issac Newton
- Albert Einstien
- Carl Jung

2. Which year did Jung publish the work about synchronicity?

- 1953
- 1952
- 1950

3. What was the profession of Wolfgang Pauli who opposed Jung's ideas?

- Psychiatrist
- Astrologer
- Psychologist

4. Who of the following wrote a book about synchronicity?

- Emile Deschamps
- Arthur Koestler
- Carl Jung

5. What is the concept of synchronicity?

- Events happen spontaneously
- Events occur naturally

Events are meaningful coincidences

6. When did Jung give the concept of synchronicity?

- 1931
- 1920
- 1922

7. In which year did Jung give a full statement about synchronicity during his lecture in Eranos?

- 1951
- 1952
- 1950

8. How many books has Carl Jung written on the concept of synchronicity?

- 6
- 3
- 9

9. Which of the following fields can be related to the concept of synchronicity?

- Mathematics
- Religion
- Both are correct

Synchronicity Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. Who was the first to give the concept of synchronicity?
Carl Jung
2. Which year did Jung publish the work about synchronicity?
1952
3. What was the profession of Wolfgang Pauli who opposed Jung's ideas?
Psychologist
4. Who of the following wrote a book about synchronicity?
Arthur Koestler
5. What is the concept of synchronicity?
Events are meaningful coincidences
6. When did Jung give the concept of synchronicity?
1920
7. In which year did Jung give a full statement about synchronicity during his lecture in Eranos?
1951
8. How many books has Carl Jung written on the concept of synchronicity?
3
9. Which of the following fields can be related to the concept of synchronicity?
Both are correct