

Wakeboarding Quiz: questions and answers

1. What is wakeboarding?

- A surface water sport
- An action sport
- A team sport with the ball

2. When was wakeboarding founded in?

- 1977
- 1946
- 1980

3. What was wakeboarding called originally?

- Water Skiing
- Skurfing
- Surfing

4. Who invented the term "wakeboarding"?

- Paul Fraser
- Bruce McKee
- Mitchell Ross

5. Which of the following is not a wakeboarding maneuver?

- Ollie
- Blind Pete

Half Cab

6. Which of the following is a wakeboarding maneuver?

Nose Grab

360 Flip

KGB

7. What is Skeezer trick?

Heelside backroll frontside 180

Toeside front flip backside 180

Switch stance crow mobe

8. What is Tantrum?

A rider approaches the wake toeside and flips (or rolls) over the wake on an axis parallel to the direction of the board, as if he/she were following it around like a continuous loop

Toeside backroll frontside 180

A rider approaches the wake heelside and back flips over the wake on an axis perpendicular to the direction of the board

9. What is Vulcan?

S-Bend to switch landing. Heelside approach

Backside tweaked out Raley.

Tantrum with a backside 360

10. Indy is not a:

A rider spins the board 360 degrees while riding the surface of the water.

A Grab variation

When the back hand grabs the toes edge between the feet. This is normally the first grab you learn.

Wakeboarding Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What is wakeboarding?

A surface water sport

2. When was wakeboarding founded in?

1946

3. What was wakeboarding called originally?

Skurfing

4. Who invented the term "wakeboarding"?

Paul Fraser

5. Which of the following is not a wakeboarding maneuver?

Ollie

6. Which of the following is a wakeboarding maneuver?

KGB

7. What is Skeezer trick?

Switch stance crow mobe

8. What is Tantrum?

A rider approaches the wake heelside and back flips over the wake on an axis perpendicular to the direction of the board

9. What is Vulcan?

S-Bend to switch landing. Heelside approach

10. Indy is not a:

A rider spins the board 360 degrees while riding the surface of the water.