

Quiz: What Do You Know About Tigers?

1. Scientists have identified nine subspecies of tiger, of which by the beginning of the XXI century, only ...

- three
- six
- eight

2. How many cubs are most often born to a tigress in one brood?

- 2 - 4
- 1
- 5 - 6

3. How much does a Bengal tiger weigh on average?

- 128 kg
- 150 kg
- 220 kg

4. What is the maximum speed a tiger can reach?

- About 60 km/h
- A little more than 60 km/h
- Up to 100 km/h

5. The tiger is one of the members of the panther genus. How many are there in total?

- Three
- Five
- Seven

6. How many years on average does a tiger live in the wild?

- 5 years
- 15 years.
- 45 years.

7. Every human has unique fingerprints. What is unique about tigers?

- The length of their fur
- Eye color
- Stripes.

8. How do Ussuri tigers live: in packs or singly?

- Pack
- Alone
- Sometimes in packs and sometimes alone.

9. Is it true that there are more tigers in the world's zoos and homes than in the wild?

- Yes
- No
- Tigers don't live in houses

10. Do tigers often attack humans?

- More often than anyone in the cat family.
- Almost never attack.
- More often than all other animals

11. Which of the following facts about tigers is true?

- As of 2020, hunting tigers is banned worldwide.
- The Bali tiger is a species that has been conserved by zoologists on the island of Bali.
- Monogamy is typical of the tiger.

12. What is a lion and tiger litter called?

- Liger
- Tigerlion
- Taligre

Quiz: What Do You Know About Tigers?

Right answers

1. Scientists have identified nine subspecies of tiger, of which by the beginning of the XXI century, only
...
six
2. How many cubs are most often born to a tigress in one brood?
2 - 4
3. How much does a Bengal tiger weigh on average?
220 kg
4. What is the maximum speed a tiger can reach?
About 60 km/h
5. The tiger is one of the members of the panther genus. How many are there in total?
Five
6. How many years on average does a tiger live in the wild?
15 years.
7. Every human has unique fingerprints. What is unique about tigers?
Stripes.
8. How do Ussuri tigers live: in packs or singly?
Alone
9. Is it true that there are more tigers in the world's zoos and homes than in the wild?
Yes
10. Do tigers often attack humans?
More often than anyone in the cat family.
11. Which of the following facts about tigers is true?
As of 2020, hunting tigers is banned worldwide.
12. What is a lion and tiger litter called?
Liger