

Women's Suffrage Quiz: questions and answers

1. What is the women's suffrage?

- The right of women to work
- The right of women to occupy important charges
- The right of women to vote in elections

2. What is a person who advocates the extension of suffrage called?

- Suffragist
- Feminist
- Activist

3. When did women in the US vote for the first time?

- 1917
- 1892
- 1920

4. What was the first country in the Americas where women got the right to vote?

- Chile
- Uruguay
- Ecuador

5. What is the only place in the world where women can't vote in the elections?

- United Arab Emirates
- Israel

Vatican City

6. What started the women's suffrage movement?

- Rusk documents
- Declaration of Rights and Sentiments
- Key West Agreement

7. What culminates in the suffrage movement?

- Declaration by United Nations
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights
- Hull note

8. What was the last country to give women the right to vote?

- Mexico
- Saudi Arabia
- Canada

9. Which was the first European country to introduce women's suffrage?

- Grand Duchy of Finland
- Norway
- Denmark

10. To which movement does women's suffrage belong?

- Environmental movements[†]
- Hippie movement[†]
- Feminism

Women's Suffrage Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What is the women's suffrage?
The right of women to vote in elections
2. What is a person who advocates the extension of suffrage called?
Suffragist
3. When did women in the US vote for the first time?
1920
4. What was the first country in the Americas where women got the right to vote?
Uruguay
5. What is the only place in the world where women can't vote in the elections?
Vatican City
6. What started the women's suffrage movement?
Declaration of Rights and Sentiments
7. What culminates in the suffrage movement?
Universal Declaration of Human Rights
8. What was the last country to give women the right to vote?
Saudi Arabia
9. Which was the first European country to introduce women's suffrage?
Grand Duchy of Finland
10. To which movement does women's suffrage belong?
Feminism