

Zebra Quiz: questions and answers

1. What color are zebras?

- Black and white
- Black and yellow
- Red and white

2. How many species of zebras exist?

- 3
- 2
- 1

3. In terms of their scientific classification, to which subgenus do plain zebra and mountain zebra belong?

- Amerhippus
- Hippotigris
- Dolichohippus

4. Which zebra species resembles an ass?

- Mountain zebra
- Grévy's zebra
- Plains zebra

5. Where are zebras native to?

- South America
- Africa

Asia

6. Grévy's zebra is an inhabitant of the semi-arid grasslands of:

- Ethiopia and Kenya
- Morocco and Libya
- Ivory Coast and Nigeria

7. How long is a plain zebra's tail?

- 0.25 m
- 0.5 m
- 0.75 m

8. When did the quagga become extinct?

- Late 18th century
- Mid-19th century
- Late 19th century

9. Plain zebra's diet is estimated to be:

- 90% grass, 7% herbs and 3% shrubs
- 92% grass, 5% herbs and 3% shrubs
- 94% grass, 4% herbs and 2% shrubs

10. What is the current population of plain zebras?

- 900,000
- 700,000
- 750,000

Zebra Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What color are zebras?

Black and white

2. How many species of zebras exist?

3

3. In terms of their scientific classification, to which subgenus do plain zebra and mountain zebra belong?

Hippotigris

4. Which zebra species resembles an ass?

Grévy's zebra

5. Where are zebras native to?

Africa

6. Grévy's zebra is an inhabitant of the semi-arid grasslands of:

Ethiopia and Kenya

7. How long is a plain zebra's tail?

0.5 m

8. When did the quagga become extinct?

Late 19th century

9. Plain zebra's diet is estimated to be:

92% grass, 5% herbs and 3% shrubs

10. What is the current population of plain zebras?

750,000