

The Famous People Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

1. The outstanding chemist Dmitri Ivanovich Mendeleev, who discovered the periodic law of chemical elements, was born into a large family. How many children were there?

- 12
- 14
- 17

2. This artist is recognized as the most expensive and popular in the last 100 years, his paintings are highly valued not only by experts, but also by thieves. Which artist are we talking about?

- Pablo Picasso
- Salvador Dali

Kazimir Malevich

3. In which city was Auguste Rodin, author of the famous sculptures The Thinker, Gates of Hell, and The Kiss, born?

In Marseille

In Paris

In Lyon

4. Ernest Hemingway was not only a brilliant writer, but also a very brave man. He participated in two world wars, proved himself as a brave fighter and received a large number of splinters. He devoted his work to the theme of World War I ...

"For Whom the Bell Tolls"

"The Old Man and the Sea"

"Farewell, Arms!"

5. The famous film director, winner of five Oscars and the Palme d'Or, who gave the world masterpieces of world cinema: "Eight and a Half", "Sweet Life", "Nights of Cabiria".

Ingmar Bergman

Martin Scorsese

Federico Fellini

6. What movie role brought international fame to actor Al Pacino?

The Godfather

Taxi Driver

Apocalypse Now

7. Nikola Tesla made a great contribution to the development of electrical engineering and radio engineering. What unit of measurement is named after him?

The potential of an electric field

Magnetic flux density

Active power

8. Marie Skłodowska-Curie was the first woman in history to win the Nobel Prize, the first woman to be a member of the Paris Medical Academy, and the first woman to teach at the Sorbonne. What chemical elements did she discover?

- Thorium, uranium
- Radium, polonium
- Hafnium, osmium

9. Which scientist is considered the "father of the theory of innate immunity"?

- Louis Pasteur
- Ilya Ilyich Mechnikov
- Alexander Fleming

10. Yuri Gagarin was the first cosmonaut to fly into space. What was the name of the spacecraft in which he made his debut?

- Soyuz-1
- Voskhod 1
- Vostok-1

11. Sergei Pavlovich Korolev designed the first artificial satellite and the spacecraft on which Yuri Gagarin went into space. For his great contribution to the exploration of space he received the award of ...

- Hero of the Soviet Union
- Hero of Socialist Labor
- Nobel Prize

12. The name of Steve Jobs is closely associated with the era of information technology. He is an unusually talented inventor, industrial designer and entrepreneur who founded the largest corporation Apple. At what age did he design the first computer?

- At 18 years old
- In 20 years old
- At 22

13. Margaret Thatcher was the first woman to become prime minister of a European country. She was nicknamed for her tough methods...

- The Iron Lady
- The Woman of the Flint
- Hitler in a skirt

14. This president led the United States out of the Great Depression and turned the nation into a powerful superpower.

- Herbert Hoover
- Franklin Roosevelt
- Ronald Reagan

15. The famous political and social activist Mahatma Gandhi dedicated his life to fighting for the rights of Indians. What was his philosophy of nonviolence called?

- Satyagraha
- Ahimsa
- Pacifism

16. Winston Churchill has been called the greatest Briton in history. He is a prominent politician, prime minister of Great Britain, and a Nobel Prize winner. In what category was he awarded?

- Prize in literature
- Prize in physics
- Prize in economics

17. One of the brightest representatives of protest voices in the United States, pioneering musician, author of the hits "Blowin in the Wind," "Like a Rolling Stone," and "The Times They Are a-Changin."

- Elvis Presley
- Bob Dylan
- Jim Morrison

18. Renowned psychologist, psychiatrist, neurologist, author of important works, who contributed greatly to the development of psychology and psychiatry, founder of psychoanalysis.

- Carl Jung
- Sigmund Freud
- Alfred Adler

19. Albert Einstein is the founder of modern theoretical physics. For which theory did he receive the Nobel Prize in Physics?

- The theory of relativity
- The theory of the photoelectric effect
- The theory of heat capacity

The Famous People Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

Right answers

1. The outstanding chemist Dmitri Ivanovich Mendeleev, who discovered the periodic law of chemical elements, was born into a large family. How many children were there?

17

2. This artist is recognized as the most expensive and popular in the last 100 years, his paintings are highly valued not only by experts, but also by thieves. Which artist are we talking about?

Pablo Picasso

3. In which city was Auguste Rodin, author of the famous sculptures The Thinker, Gates of Hell, and The Kiss, born?

In Paris

4. Ernest Hemingway was not only a brilliant writer, but also a very brave man. He participated in two world wars, proved himself as a brave fighter and received a large number of splinters. He devoted his work to the theme of World War I ...

"Farewell, Arms!"

5. The famous film director, winner of five Oscars and the Palme d'Or, who gave the world masterpieces of world cinema: "Eight and a Half", "Sweet Life", "Nights of Cabiria".

Federico Fellini

6. What movie role brought international fame to actor Al Pacino?

The Godfather

7. Nikola Tesla made a great contribution to the development of electrical engineering and radio engineering. What unit of measurement is named after him?

Magnetic flux density

8. Marie Skłodowska-Curie was the first woman in history to win the Nobel Prize, the first woman to be a member of the Paris Medical Academy, and the first woman to teach at the Sorbonne. What chemical elements did she discover?

Radium, polonium

9. Which scientist is considered the "father of the theory of innate immunity"?

Ilya Ilyich Mechnikov

10. Yuri Gagarin was the first cosmonaut to fly into space. What was the name of the spacecraft in which he made his debut?

Vostok-1

11. Sergei Pavlovich Korolev designed the first artificial satellite and the spacecraft on which Yuri Gagarin went into space. For his great contribution to the exploration of space he received the award of ...

Hero of Socialist Labor

12. The name of Steve Jobs is closely associated with the era of information technology. He is an unusually talented inventor, industrial designer and entrepreneur who founded the largest corporation Apple. At what age did he design the first computer?

In 20 years old

13. Margaret Thatcher was the first woman to become prime minister of a European country. She was nicknamed for her tough methods...

The Iron Lady

14. This president led the United States out of the Great Depression and turned the nation into a powerful superpower.

Franklin Roosevelt

15. The famous political and social activist Mahatma Gandhi dedicated his life to fighting for the rights of Indians. What was his philosophy of nonviolence called?

Satyagraha

16. Winston Churchill has been called the greatest Briton in history. He is a prominent politician, prime minister of Great Britain, and a Nobel Prize winner. In what category was he awarded?

Prize in literature

17. One of the brightest representatives of protest voices in the United States, pioneering musician, author of the hits "Blowin in the Wind," "Like a Rolling Stone," and "The Times They Are a-Changin."

Bob Dylan

18. Renowned psychologist, psychiatrist, neurologist, author of important works, who contributed greatly to the development of psychology and psychiatry, founder of psychoanalysis.

Sigmund Freud

19. Albert Einstein is the founder of modern theoretical physics. For which theory did he receive the Nobel Prize in Physics?

The theory of the photoelectric effect