

Weapons of World War I Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

1. The Maxim machine gun was developed in 1883 ...

- by a Russian gunsmith
- by an American-born British gunsmith
- by a German small arms designer

2. Select the caliber of the Fedorov assault rifle from the list.

- 11 mm
- 10.75 mm
- 6.5 mm

3. The flechette, a metal dart arrow, is a type of aerial weapon developed in the early 20th century. It was used in World War I battles against infantry and cavalry. What size was it?

- About the size of a pencil
- About 35 centimeters
- 51 centimeters

4. The first lethal use of chemical weapons took place on April 22, 1915, during World War I. Which country used it?

- USA
- Russia
- Germany
- France

5. The Kettering Bug, also known as the Liberty Eagle, is a ...

- experimental unmanned aerial torpedo.
- a field howitzer of the British Empire.
- a bombing racket.

6. Towarnicki's walking flamethrower was used in World War I by the ...

- German army

- Ottoman army
- Russian army

7. The Paris Gun was a super long-barreled, long-barreled gun on a swivel carriage that Germany used to shell Paris in 1918. Its other name is ...

- Kaiser Wilhelm Gun
- Kolossal
- Both answers are correct

8. The German "Big Bertha" is a

- aerial bomb
- mortar
- telebomb

9. Which of the following is an anti-tank weapon?

- Guidoni telebomb
- Imperial artillery saber
- Mauser T-gewehr.

10. To which weapon is the checker closer in structure and use?

- To the knife
- To the saber
- To the rapier

11. The Glisenti Model 1910 was in service with the Italian army in World War I? It is ...

- machine gun
- flamethrower
- semi-automatic pistol
- rifle

12. The Russian name for the Limonka grenade came about during the First World War. Why was it so named?

- It is shaped like a lemon.

- It caused a certain expression on the faces of the enemy.
- It was named after its designer.

13. How many rounds does the drum of a Nagan revolver hold?

- Six
- Seven
- Eight

14. What was a disadvantage of the Luger pistol (Parabellum)?

- Low accuracy.
- It had an uncomfortable grip.
- It was difficult and expensive to manufacture.

15. What breed of dog, was the name of a pocket revolver widely used in the late 19th and first half of the 20th century?

- Spitz
- Bulldog
- Dachshund

16. The Kleif was a small backpack flamethrower in service with the German army during World War I. What flammable liquid was used in it?

- Liquefied gas
- Butanol
- Kerosene

17. A serial bomber of the Russian Empire was named after which Russian bogatyr?

- Alyosha Popovich
- Dobrynya Nikitich
- Ilya Muromets

18. A colorless gas with a faint odor of stale hay, which was used in World War I as a chemical warfare agent.

- Ypryl
- Phosgene

Chlorine

Weapons of World War I Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

Right answers

1. The Maxim machine gun was developed in 1883 ...
by an American-born British gunsmith
2. Select the caliber of the Fedorov assault rifle from the list.
6.5 mm
3. The flechette, a metal dart arrow, is a type of aerial weapon developed in the early 20th century. It was used in World War I battles against infantry and cavalry. What size was it?
About the size of a pencil
4. The first lethal use of chemical weapons took place on April 22, 1915, during World War I. Which country used it?
Germany
5. The Kettering Bug, also known as the Liberty Eagle, is a ...
experimental unmanned aerial torpedo.
6. Towarnicki's walking flamethrower was used in World War I by the ...
Russian army
7. The Paris Gun was a super long-barreled, long-barreled gun on a swivel carriage that Germany used to shell Paris in 1918. Its other name is ...
Both answers are correct
8. The German "Big Bertha" is a
mortar
9. Which of the following is an anti-tank weapon?
Mauser T-gewehr.
10. To which weapon is the checker closer in structure and use?
To the knife
11. The Glisenti Model 1910 was in service with the Italian army in World War I? It is ...
semi-automatic pistol
12. The Russian name for the Limonka grenade came about during the First World War. Why was it so named?
It was named after its designer.
13. How many rounds does the drum of a Nagan revolver hold?
Seven
14. What was a disadvantage of the Luger pistol (Parabellum)?
It was difficult and expensive to manufacture.
15. What breed of dog, was the name of a pocket revolver widely used in the late 19th and first half of the 20th century?
Bulldog

16. The Kleif was a small backpack flamethrower in service with the German army during World War I. What flammable liquid was used in it?

Liquefied gas

17. A serial bomber of the Russian Empire was named after which Russian bogatyr?

Ilya Muromets

18. A colorless gas with a faint odor of stale hay, which was used in World War I as a chemical warfare agent.

Phosgene